Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Infinite Giving Advisory Services, Inc. ("Infinite Giving") and its affiliates. See list of affiliates below.

What we do

How does Infinite Giving protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Infinite Giving collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account
- seek advice about your investment
- place transactions
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- tell us about your investments and other financial information

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account—unless you tell us otherwise.
